THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

By Francis Scott Key

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner! O long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wiped out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave:
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

By James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing, till earth and Heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise, high as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered;
Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou Who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou Who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

The 2012 Winner of the Allen and Lynn Turner Commencement Poetry Competition

HURRY UP, WE'RE DREAMING

It wouldn't be the first time
I've walked into a room and opened my eyes to smoke.
We're new and don't know it.
The pain we feel in finding that out is nothing at all like the first time we found we had been dreaming inside the same house for years and years.
There was a largeness we called potato
(still I always forget whether the e goes in or stays out) at the end he comes into town and crushes everything.
But most important is always his foot coming down to meet a tall glass case.
In dreams magic is tangible, as everything—the ability to touch and feel is assumed into our beings as in the magic held in that tall glass case felt inside of me like without a doubt a lot of Hallmark stuff.
But you always knew better than me when to leave an unspoken-for object and I always know when to let them go, untouched.
Hurry up, we can make it there in time to feel those words inside of us.

— Ryann Wahl, Master of Fine Arts, Creative Writing - Poetry ('12)

Each year, Columbia College Chicago honors outstanding individuals in the arts, education, politics, and public information. These individuals have engaged their great talents in important human service, and their work and example embody the ideals and spirit of the College.

TO BE HONORED SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2012, 9:00 A.M.

PHIL RAMONE

Music Producer

Phil Ramone is one of the most respected and prolific music producers in the recording industry.

With thirty-four Grammy nominations, fourteen Grammy Awards (including a Technical Grammy for his lifetime of innovative contributions to the recording industry), an Emmy, and numerous honors and accolades to his credit, Ramone is often described as one of the world's top creative producers.

He has played an integral role in pioneering many of the technological developments in the music industry over the years, some of which are documented in his book Making Records. Ramone ardently supported the use of the compact disc, digital video disc, hi-definition recording and surround sound. Appropriately, the first CD ever pressed, Billy Joel's 52nd Street, was a Phil Ramone production, as was the first pop DVD release, Dave Grusin Presents West Side Story. Ramone's use of a fiber optics system (EDNet) to record tracks in real time from different locations (for Frank Sinatra's Duets I & II) was groundbreaking. In 2004, Ramone was a recipient of the first Grammy given for Best Surround Sound Album, for Ray Charles' Genius Loves Company.

Ramone's unique skills make him invaluable to the artists he works with. His impeccable list of credits includes collaborations with artists such as Burt Bacharach, Bono, Ray Charles, Chicago, Natalie Cole, Bob Dylan, Gloria Estefan, Renee Fleming, Aretha Franklin, Etta James, Quincy Jones, BB King, John Legend, Madonna, Paul McCartney, Liza Minnelli, Sinead O'Connor, Luciano Pavarotti, Peter/Paul and Mary, Andre Previn, Carly Simon, Paul Simon, Frank Sinatra, Rod Stewart, Sting, and Stevie Wonder. And he has long been recognized for the diversity of his work, as evidenced by his recordings with artists ranging from Michael Buble, Dixie Chicks, Sheryl Crow, Gladys Knight, Juanes, Chaka Khan, Dave Koz, kd Lang, Queen Latifah, Bonnie Raitt, Bruce Springsteen, James Taylor, Keith Urban, Wynonna, and Nancy Wilson.

A passionate fan of all forms of entertainment, Ramone has numerous concert, film, Broadway, and television productions to his credit too, including A Star is Born, August Rush, Beyond the Sea, Flashdance, Ghostbusters, Midnight Cowboy, On Her Majesty's Secret Service, Passion, Seussical, Simon and Garfunkel: The Concert In Central Park, Songwriters Hall of Fame Awards, The Score, VH1/BBC Queens Jubilee Party at the Palace, and The Good Thief.

Ramone is also extremely active in music- and service-related organizations. He is the Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Trustees of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences (NARAS), a Co-Chairman of the Producers and Engineers Wing, and a former Trustee of the MusiCares Foundation (having produced their annual pre-Grammy tribute, whose honorees included Aretha Franklin, James Taylor, Brian Wilson, Sting, Bono, Paul Simon, Billy Joel, Elton John, and Luciano Pavarotti). Ramone is a champion of music educational programs and serves on the boards of the National Mentoring Partnership, and the Berklee College of Music. He is a Trustee of the Songwriters Hall Of Fame and a member the National Recording Preservation Board of the Library of Congress. Ramone is also a founding member of the Music and Engineering Technology Alliance (META), an elite group of producers and engineers facilitating the establishment of high-quality music recording and delivery by uniting audio professionals, consumer electronics manufacturers, music enthusiasts, and technology providers.

TO BE HONORED SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2012, 12:30 P.M.

LEE FLAHERTY

CEO, Flair Communications Agency

In 1957, while on the GI Bill, Lee Flaherty graduated with a Marketing Degree from University of California, Berkeley. He joined a San Francisco agency and was transferred to Chicago where, for seven years, he worked at two marketing agencies. In 1964, with an idea for a new agency and startup money from his mother, Frances, he founded Flair Communications on a third floor of a dilapidated 1883 building.

Flair prospered, repaid his mother, put her on lifetime payroll, and bought the building. Over the years, he was selected eleven times as America's #1 Marketing Agency, received the Wall Street Journal's Award for Top USA Agency, and in the Interactive Poll, Flair was voted America's Most Admired Marketing Agency. The once-dilapidated building is now known as Flair House and recognized as One of America's Top Ten Creative Environments.

Flaherty realized a strong body makes the mind strong, and he was the All-Service Middleweight Boxing Champion. Nicknamed "Flair," he is an inductee of Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame and lifetime member of President's Council on Fitness, Sports, and Nutrition. In business Flaherty received the Horatio Alger Award, was a marketing All-Star eleven times, and is recognized as a Chicago Legend.

Flaherty believes that "we all die. The goal isn't to live forever, the goal is to create something that will." In 1977, he founded The Chicago Marathon, raising $12 million for charities annually; in 1984, Old St. Pat's Block Party, whose funds helped to build the F.X. Warde non-denominational school; and in 2011, he co-founded Home Team Run for White Sox, Bulls, and Blackhawks charities. Upon graduating from Berkeley, Flaherty was advised when reaching the top he was obligated to send the elevator back down. Flair provides opportunities for youth, with their indomitable spirit, as well as ways to give back and help make Americans healthy.

TO BE HONORED SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2012, 4:00 P.M.

PHILIP-LORCA DICORCIA

Photographer

One of the most influential and innovative photographers working today, Philip-Lorca diCorcia is known for creating images that balance between documentary and theatrically-staged photography. His practice takes everyday occurrences beyond the realm of banality, infusing what would otherwise appear to be insignificant with psychology and emotion. DiCorcia employs photography as a fictive medium capable of creating uncanny, complex realities out of seemingly straightforward compositions. As such, his work is based on the dichotomy between fact and fiction and asks the viewer to question the assumed truths that the photographic image offers.

Born in 1951 in Hartford, Connecticut, diCorcia received his MFA from Yale University in 1979. His work has been the subject of solo exhibitions at prominent institutions, most recently at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (2008) and the Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston (2007). In 1993, a major solo exhibition was organized by The Museum of Modern Art, New York. An upcoming solo show is planned for 2013 at the Schirn Kunsthalle, Frankfurt, and will travel to the Museum De Pont in Tilburg, The Netherlands.

The artist's works are held in major international museum collections, including the Centre Georges Pompidou, Paris; Dallas Museum of Art; Los Angeles County Museum of Art; Magasin 3 Stockholm Konsthall; The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Museo Nacional Centro de Art Reina Sofia, Madrid; Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; The Museum of Modern Art, New York; National Gallery of Art, Washington, DC; San Francisco Museum of Modern Art; Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York; Tate Gallery, London; Victoria & Albert Museum, London; and the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York.

DiCorcia lives and works in New York and currently teaches at Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut. His work is represented by David Zwirner, New York, and Sprüth Magers, London and Berlin.

TO BE HONORED SUNDAY, MAY 6, 2012, 9:00 A.M.

STEVE JAMES

Documentary Filmmaker

Steve James is best known as the producer-director of Hoop Dreams, winner of every major critics prize of 1994, as well as the Directors Guild of America Award and the Peabody and Robert F. Kennedy Journalism Awards. Hoop Dreams was named to the Library of Congress National Film Registry, signifying its enduring importance to the history of film.

Other award-winning films include Stevie, which won numerous festivals and landed on a dozen ten best lists for 2003; the miniseries The New Americans, winner of the 2004 IDA Award for The Best Limited Series; At the Death House Door, which won numerous awards at festivals including Full Frame, DOC AVIV, DOCNZ, and Atlanta, and was nominated for a Directors Guild of America Award; and No Crossover: The Trial of Allen Iverson for ESPN's Peabody and IDA award-winning 30 for 30 series.

James' most recent film, The Interrupters, was his fifth to premiere at the Sundance Film Festival and a hit on the festival circuit, winning the top prize at the Sheffield Film Festival, Miami Film Festival, and Minneapolis Film Festival, as well as a Special Jury Prize at Full Frame. It took the two top Cinema Eye Awards, for Nonfiction Feature Filmmaking and Best Direction, and it also won the Independent Spirit Award. The Interrupters was listed on many 2011 Best Films of the Year lists in publications such as Time, The New Yorker, The Chicago Tribune, Boston Globe, Slate, and The LA Times, and it was named Best Documentary of the year in both the IndieWire and Village Voice national critics polls.

The New York Times' Manohla Dargis said The Interrupters is "a hard wallop of a documentary . . . Mr. James has put a face to a raging epidemic and an unforgivable American tragedy." Andrew O'Hehir of Salon writes, "You won't see a movie this year that is more moving, more tragic, more upsetting, more hopeful or more necessary."

TO BE HONORED SUNDAY, MAY 6, 2012, 12:30 P.M.

WARREN SPECTOR

Video Game Designer

Warren Spector, veteran electronic game designer/producer, has worked in the game industry since 1983. At Steve Jackson Games and TSR, Spector worked on pen-and-paper games including TOON: The Cartoon Role-Playing Game, the Top Secret/SI Espionage role-playing game, and The Bullwinkle & Rocky Party Roleplaying Game, to name a few.

In 1989, he joined computer game developer Origin Systems, where he produced Martian Dreams, Ultima Underworld, System Shock, Serpent Isle, Wings of Glory, and others. After seven years with Origin, Warren did a brief stint with LookingGlass Technologies before founding the Ion Storm studio in Austin, Texas in 1997.

At Ion Storm, Spector produced and directed the award-winning Deus Ex and later, he oversaw development of Deus Ex: Invisible War and Thief: Deadly Shadows. Spector left Ion Storm in November 2004 to found Junction Point Studios, where he and his team developed concepts for a variety of video game and motion picture partners. In July 2007, Junction Point was acquired by The Walt Disney Company. As part of Disney, Spector directed the Wii-exclusive Disney Epic Mickey, which in 2010 offered gamers a new perspective on the world's most popular cartoon star, Mickey Mouse.

In addition to making games, Spector has written novels, comic books and numerous articles on film, television and videogames. As an Assistant Instructor at the University of Texas at Austin (UT), he taught a variety of film and television courses and in 2007, he offered a Master Class in Videogames and Digital Media. From 2000-2002, Spector served on the Board of Directors of the International Game Developers Association (IGDA) and was co-chair of the IGDA's education committee.

MAVIS STAPLES

Vocalist

Mavis Staples is a Rock and Roll Hall of Famer, a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award winner, and a National Heritage Fellowship Award recipient. VH1 named her one of the 100 Greatest Women of Rock and Roll, and Rolling Stone listed her as one of the 100 Greatest Singers of All Time. Her new album is called You Are Not Alone.

"All of these songs are me, but in a different way, with a different sound," says Staples. "The phrasing, the tempos, the arrangements are different, but the messages are the same things I've been saying down through the years. They're about the world today—poverty, jobs, welfare, all of that—and making it feel better through these songs."

This project, produced by Wilco's Jeff Tweedy—and being released more than sixty years after Staples began singing with her ground-breaking family group, the Staple Singers—is the follow-up to We'll Never Turn Back, her acclaimed 2007 collection of songs associated with the civil rights movement, and to 2009's Grammy-nominated live album Hope at the Hideout. She is accompanied by Rick Holmstrom, guitar, vocals; Jeff Turmes, bass, vocals; Stephen Hodges, drums; and Donny Gerrard, background vocals.

"Mavis is the walking embodiment of undaunted spirit and courage," says Tweedy. "She's an ever-forward looking, positive example for all human beings. And she sounds like she's in the prime of her life."

The album was recorded during a cold and snowy Chicago winter, and Staples laughs as she describes the session in which they cut the a cappella gospel number "Wonderful Savior." Tweedy set up the microphones in a stairwell, assuring her that it would result in a better vocal sound. "I said, 'it's freezing, I'm not going out there!,'" she says. "So he said, 'somebody get Mavis a coat and some gloves.' But when I heard it back, I said, 'we better go out there again!'"

You Are Not Alone caps an incredible decade for Mavis Staples, a resurgence that saw her receive Grammy nominations in blues, gospel, folk, and pop categories. She claims, in fact, that she has done so much diverse work recently that, until Jeff Tweedy helped guide the way, she wasn't sure of her direction.

"After the We'll Never Turn Back CD, I didn't know which way to turn," she says. "Did I want to do a country record, a gospel record, or what? So I needed a sound like this—something that fit my message, but flowed in a different direction from where I would normally take a song so it wasn't just the same old same old."

"I wanted to make an album where every song had meaning," Staples says, "where every song told a story and would lift you up and give you a reason to get up in the morning. And I know it's going to feel really good singing these songs on stage."

ART BALTAZAR

Undeclared (BA '92)

Art Baltazar is a super-cartoonist machine from the heart of Chicago. He's all about peace, love, and joy. He defines cartoons and comics not only as an art style but as a way of life. Art started his funky, secret art studio in 1994 with his self-published comic book, The Cray-Baby Adventures. Since then, he has created other comics such as Gyro-Man, Captain Camel & the Space Chicken, Jimmy Dydo, Lunar Lizard, Meteor Mite, and the famous Patrick the Wolf Boy. This guy shows no signs of stopping!

Art has also had a few gigs with Warner Bros. Books, and he also had a monthly comic strip in Disney Adventures Magazine, "GORILLA GORILLA." Art has some cool character design skills and has recently completed an autobiographical graphic novel called The Big Amoeba.

Currently, Art is the creative force behind The New York Times-bestselling, Eisner Award-winning Tiny Titans (DC Comics), and the artist of the Super Pets children's book series (also DC). In addition, Art co-wrote DC's Billy Batson and the Magic of SHAZAM, Young Justice, Green Lantern Animated (comic), and is the artist/co-writer for the historically awesome Tiny Titans/Little Archie crossover, as well as the new Superman Family Adventures.

Jumping from small press to mainstream in a heartbeat, Art is living the dream. He stays home and draws comics and never has to leave the house. He lives with his lovely wife, Rose, big boy Sonny, little boy Gordon, and little girl Audrey. AW YEAH MAN!

Art's awards include 2009 and 2001 Eisners (Best Publication for Kids) and a Harvey in 2011 (Best Original Graphic Publication for Younger Readers), and in March 2009, he was #8 on The New York Times Bestseller List for Tiny Titans Vol. 1.

LANA BRAMLETTE

AEMM: Fashion/Retail Management (BA '97)

Lauded by her loyal fans as the “Queen of Hoops,” Lana Bramlette is the face and force behind Lana Jewelry. Her impeccable eye for casually luxurious style has made her a pioneer in the world of fine jewelry. The collections are timeless yet sexy, and fans around the world crave the “Lana Look,” a term that has come to stand for the world’s most delicate and modern jewelry.

Lana’s minimalist and cool approach to design has resulted in dozens of pieces that have instantly become cult classics, like her famous Upside Down Hoops; more than 55,000 pairs have been sold since their debut nine years ago.

Lana launched Lana Jewelry in 2002 with her boyfriend (now husband) Rob Bramlette. She designed a piece with his name suspended in a hanging heart, and that piece turned into a collection that was instantly picked up by celebrity favorite superstore Fred Segal. Today, Lana Jewelry is in more than 150 of the finest retailers worldwide including: Nieman Marcus, Bloomingdale’s, Nordstrom, and Harrods, to name a few.

Celebrities and fashion icons such as Jennifer Lopez, Cameron Diaz, Kate Hudson, Zoe Saldana, and Angelina Jolie own and wear Lana’s jewelry. Her pieces are featured in many films and TV shows, and on magazine covers, including Lucky and the Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Edition.

Hailed as a “Woman to Watch” by Crain’s Business, named a designer with the “Midas Touch” by Entrepreneur Magazine and listed as “One to Watch” by Lucky Magazine, Lana is well on her way to realizing her dream of turning Lana Jewelry into a fashion megabrand.

Today Lana runs her company with her business partner and father, Naum Fertelmeister; her husband Rob; and a team of incredible women. Lana is also the founder of the Chicago Fashion Foundation (CFF), a nonprofit that gives annual scholarships to deserving Chicago-area design students. Lana and her husband reside in Chicago and are the proud parents of a baby girl, Blake.

MARLON WEST

Film & Video: Animation (BA '85)

After graduating from Columbia College in 1985, Marlon West started his career producing educational films for Encyclopaedia Britannica. In 1989, he moved to Los Angeles and started freelancing, working on special effects for music videos, television commercials, and motion pictures. Marlon joined Walt Disney Animation Studios in 1993 as an effects animator on The Lion King.

Continuing in his role as effects animator, Marlon went on to work on Pocahontas, Hunchback of Notre Dame, Hercules, Mulan, Tarzan, Fantasia/2000, and The Emperor's New Groove. Marlon worked as head of effects on Atlantis: The Lost Empire and Home on the Range.

Marlon's first assignment at Disney was to add the dust cloud effects to the wildebeest stampede scene in The Lion King. On Pocahontas, he was part of the team responsible for the storm sequence at the beginning of the film. He also designed and animated the effects for Grandmother Willow, Pocahontas's aged advisor. Marlon also added the molten lead effects to The Hunchback of Notre Dame's dramatic climax scene. For Hercules, he used his artistic skills to bring life to the hotheaded Hades and the destructive Titans. Marlon animated the fire on the shipwreck in Tarzan, as well as much of the lightning in the showdown between Tarzan and Clayton. He served as assistant effects supervisor on the "Rhapsody in Blue" sequence of Fantasia/2000.

As effects lead on Atlantis: The Lost Empire, Marlon designed most of the effects for the film. He was also responsible for casting and keying all traditional and digital effects and worked closely with the directors and art director to create the "comic book" look of the movie.

After transitioning to CG-animated films, working as a digital artist animating special effects on Chicken Little and then as an effects animator on Meet the Robinsons, Marlon helped to usher traditional, 2-D animation (as well as the cartoon short form) back to the studio, with his work as artistic coordinator and visual effects supervisor on How to Hook Up Your Home Theater. Most recently, Marlon completed The Princess and the Frog and Winnie The Pooh, and is currently serving as visual effects supervisor on Frozen, due for Thanksgiving 2013.

A native of St. Louis, Marlon resides with his daughter and thousands of CDs and records in Glendale, California. Always a music fan, he has worked as a DJ in various venues and styles.

A BRIEF HISTORY AND INTRODUCTION TO TODAY'S ACADEMIC REGALIA

Each year soon-to-be graduates of colleges and universities across America prepare to walk across the stage, clothed in caps and gowns symbolizing the successful completion of their academic endeavors. The significance of their color, size and cut can all vary based on institution, degree, and discipline. All of the particular practices of commencement attire are the result of a rich history of practices spanning centuries.

HISTORY

Wearing of academic dress is a tradition that has been practiced for nearly seven hundred years. Subsequent centuries brought many individualized institutional changes to this apparel and by the 1890s, it was deemed time to standardize the uniform of college and university commencement garb. In 1895, the code of the Intercollegiate Commission in the United States was adopted by American colleges and universities regulating cut, style and material of gowns and hoods, along with the colors attributed to each discipline. In 1932 the American Council on Education (ACE) appointed a committee to review these guidelines, resulting in the Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide, adopted by the vast majority of institutions in the United States. Additional changes to this guide were made a few times during the twentieth-century with the most recent updates taking place twenty five years ago.

TODAY'S REGALIA

The regalia which you see before you today reflects the code revisions of 1986. Some innovations are specific to Columbia College Chicago's status as a fine, visual, performing and media arts institution.

The cap and gown assignments are as follows: bachelor's degree recipients wear black caps and gowns; master's degree recipients wear silver and gray caps and gowns, and will be awarded a hood as part of the ceremonial conferring of the degree while on stage.

GOWNS

Gowns recommended for use in the colleges and universities in the United States have the following characteristics. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist and is designed to be worn either open or closed. The gown for the doctor's degree, worn by some faculty, has bell-shaped sleeves and is designed to be worn open or closed.

Gowns for the bachelor's or master's degrees are untrimmed. Faculty with doctorate degrees wear a gown faced down the front with black velvet and three velvet bars across the sleeves. These velvet items may be in a color distinctive of the disciplines to which the degree was earned and will also match the color of the edge of the hood.

HOODS

The hood colors correspond to each of the graduate degrees offered at Columbia College Chicago:

Master of Fine Arts:	dark brown
Master of Arts:	white
Master of Arts in Teaching:	light blue
Master of Arts Management:	peacock blue

Within each hood is a satin lining representing the colors of Columbia College at the time the tradition began: periwinkle with a silver chevron placed in the center. The edging of the hood is made from velvet or velveteen, and is three inches wide for master's degree recipients with the color determined by the subject to which the degree pertains.

HEADGEAR

Mortarboard caps have attached to them either silver tassels or an honor student's gold tassel. All tassels have a Columbia College signet at the top.

Faculty with doctoral degrees wear an eight-sided velvet tam while all other faculty wear mortarboards.

MEDALLIONS

The stage party is fitted with accessories to their ceremonial garb, including medallions, and, in the President's case, a ceremonial chain.

Our President's medallion and chain is made of silver and was created by sculptor and adjunct Columbia faculty member Miklos P. Simon. It contains one large disc on the bottom with the official seal of the college. The college's motto sits atop the image with the founding year, 1890, sitting below. Smaller coins are connected to the large medallion, with eight coins each containing a portrait of one of the college's past presidents.

Trustees of the College wear a small medallion on a silver ribbon. The Chairman of the Board's medallion hangs on a gold ribbon, and the other officers of the board's medallions are hung on green ribbons.
